BREAKOUT 1

9:00-9:50AM

MISSIONS AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH

What Missionaries Wish Everyone Knew — Thom Davis (CECE 4)

For every missionary sharing the Gospel cross-culturally, there is a team of people making the work possible, from sending churches to the many individuals praying and giving financially. It can be hard, though, for missionaries to share honestly with supporters the ins and outs of missionary life. Long-time missionary, Thom Davis, will tell how you can best serve the missionaries you support.

Effective Ministry to Those Who are Homebound — Robin Snider (CECE 3)

Meeting needs in the lives of adults who are physically unable to come to your church's Sunday services, as well as to their primary caregivers, is an important part of fulfilling the Great Commission to go and make disciples of all people. Robin Snider, the Georgia District Founders Care Representative, will help you see what God can do through you and your church as you seek to reach, teach, fellowship with, pray for, and minister to homebound adults.

Engaging Diverse Ethnic Communities in Your Church — Tom Galban (515)

Reaching and engaging the ethnic populations in your community is critical to fulfilling the church's mission to love God AND love people. Tom Galban, Lead Pastor of Evangel Community Church in Snellville, will interview a diverse group from their church about ways to connect with everyone you reach.

Ideas and Resources for Creative Community Outreach — Keith Ford (502)

Keith Ford, Logistics Coordinator at the Georgia Resource Center, will provide proven community outreach ideas, as well as information about how to access free supplies for these events from the Georgia Resource Center.

Why You Should Consider Planting a Church — Cheno Echevarria (CECE 5)

Ever wonder if planting a church may be part of God's plan for your life? Cheno Echevarria is an experienced church planter and mentor of those called to church planting. He will share his journey and how you can know if you are called to this.

WELCOME & ASSIMILATION MINISTRIES

Helping Guests Take Next Steps — Bennie Coleman (802)

Every church wants to better connect with their guests. We all wish more guests would become involved and feel like our church is their church. But how? Bennie Coleman of Stone Edge Church in Macon will help you develop a guest-to-member pipeline.

Forming, Leading and Celebrating Serve Teams — Tracy Jantz (310)

Most people sign up and stick as volunteers because they want community, not because they need something more to do. Tracy Jantz, Executive Pastor of Ministry at The Assembly at Warner Robins, will show you how to build community among your volunteers by forming serve teams.

BUSINESS AND ADMINISTRATION

Structures that are Crucial to the Future of Your Church— Jack Moon (805)

Is your church in compliance and aligned with best practices regarding articles of incorporation, bylaws, liability insurance, financial records, background checks, etc.? Jack Moon, Georgia District Secretary-Treasurer, will help you identify and prioritize areas needing to be addressed.

Managing Church Finances — Richard Azbell (806)

Does managing your church's finances make you feel like pressing the panic button? Breathe easy. Richard Azbell, CFO of The Assembly at Warner Robins, has some must-know tips to help you get things under control.

WORSHIP, MEDIA AND CREATIVE

Developing a Volunteer Worship Team — Jordan Johnson (500)

Excellence is important in every ministry of the church, but especially in worship. Worship is one of the most noticeable aspects of your church. But when your worship team is comprised of volunteers, their discipleship and development matter too. Jordan Hedgecoth, Worship Pastor of Bridge City Church in Stockbridge, will help you balance developing people and pursuing excellence.

Taking Great Photos That Help Reach People — Josh Smith (501)

If you want to take better photos for your local church, Josh Smith can help. As Photographer for The Assembly at Warner Robins, he can show you how to capture great images of services and events that tell the story of what God is doing at your church.

Balancing Creativity and Sensitivity to the Spirit in Worship — Leslie Jones (306)

Do you have to sacrifice creativity and excellence to be truly led by the Spirit? Leslie Jones, Worship Pastor of Redemption Church in Rome, will show you how to put together a worship experience that engages people, exalts Jesus, and makes space for the Spirit to move.

From the Site to the Seat: The Essential Role of Websites in Modern Ministry — Gabriel Mayes (Administrative Complex)

Your church's website is the frontline for your entire ministry. It's always accessible, it's how you get discovered and it's where first impressions are formed. But that's just the beginning of how a great website can benefit your ministry. Gabriel Mayes, co-founder of Maisey.co, will help you see how an effective website can attract new members, enhance communication, expand outreach and increase giving.

ADULT MINISTRIES/GENERAL

Implementing a Healthy Discipleship Process — Mark Northcutt (503)

What does it look like in 2024 to teach and model how to follow Jesus? While there is no one-size-fits-all process for making disciples, Mark Northcutt will outline the essentials of healthy discipleship that he discovered as a long-time pastor in Athens.

Growing Your Small Group Ministry — Kyle Semple (504)

Are you struggling to develop small groups? You're not alone. Yet, every believer needs close, mutually caring relationships within their Christian community. Kyle Semple, Executive Pastor of Nations Church in Athens, will share with you their journey to increase small group participation and engagement.

How to Start and Grow a Men's Ministry in Your Church — Stephen Beck (105)

Are you passionate about helping your church create an environment for men to grow? An effective men's ministry can help guys grow in their relationships, in their spiritual journeys, in their leadership capacities. If you are wondering where to start, or how to go to the next level, Stephen Beck of Dexter Assembly of God can help.

KIDS MINISTRY

Navigating the KidMin Roadmap — Julie Pratt (Cafeteria/Fellowship Hall)

Imagine a kids' ministry where children grow strong in faith, parents feel equipped to lead spiritually, and leaders are empowered to pave a clear path for spiritual growth. Julie Pratt, National Children's Ministries Discipleship Director, will introduce you to KidMin Roadmap, a comprehensive strategy to make this a reality in your church.

YOUTH MINISTRY

Panel Discussion— Johnny Mendoza & Josh Wellborn (Student Center Aud.)

Sit in on a live recording of the new G.Y.M. Class Podcast, and bring your questions for the Q & A, as Georgia Youth Min Director Johnny Mendoza interviews Assemblies of God National Youth Director Josh Wellborn.

LEAD PASTORS TRACK

Framing the Future: The Do's and Don'ts of Dealing with Discouragement — Jeffery Portmann (807/Old Choir Room)

Don't miss this pastors-only session, including Q & A, with Jeffery Portmann, Lead Pastor of Gateway Fellowship Church in Poulsbo, WA. Jeffery is the author of Delayed Destiny: Embracing Slow Motion Growth in a Fast-Paced World, and former Director for CMN—leading church planting and multiplication for the Assemblies of God.

BREAKOUT 2

10:00-10:50AM

MISSIONS AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Engaging Diverse Ethnic Communities in Your Church —Tom Galban (515)

Reaching and engaging the ethnic populations in your community is critical to fulfilling the church's mission to love God AND love people. Tom Galban, Lead Pastor of Evangel Community Church in Snellville, will interview a diverse group from their church about ways to connect with everyone you reach.

What Missionaries Wish Everyone Knew —Thom Davis (CECE 3)

For every missionary sharing the Gospel cross-culturally, there is a team of people making the work possible, from sending churches to the many individuals praying and giving financially. It can be hard, though, for missionaries to share honestly with supporters the ins and outs of missionary life. Long-time missionary, Thom Davis, will tell how you can best serve the missionaries you support.

WELCOME & ASSIMILATION MINISTRIES

Making a Great First Impression —Adriana Collins (805)

Guests make lightning-fast decisions about your church. In the first 10 minutes they will decide whether to return. Adriana Collins, First Impressions Pastor of Futures Church in Alpharetta, will help you put your best foot forward every Sunday.

How to Make Your Church Safer This Sunday —Stephen Cook (503)

We want the church to be open to all, but must prepare for violent attacks that sadly have become a reality in our world. Stephen Cook, who leads security at Southside in Savannah, will share simple steps for keeping your worshipers safe.

Creative Ways to Engage New Volunteers —Jake Gould (500)

Recruiting volunteers is a big part of any ministry leader role. On-boarding people who are excited to serve is crucial to a ministry's success, but a brief mention of the need on Sunday is not going to cut it. Pastor Jake Gould of Encounter Life-Newnan will help you attract and engage high capacity, willing volunteers.

Limiting Your Church's Liability* —Richard Azbell (806)

A lawsuit can derail a thriving church and cost thousands of dollars, as well as the loss of members and faith in the safety of the church. Richard Azbell of The Assembly at Warner Robins will help you prepare for the unexpected and put proper risk management measures in place.

Big Lessons Our Building Project Taught Me* —Wayne Lenderman (CECE 1)

Been thinking about building, expanding or remodeling part of your facility? Benefit from the wisdom gained by a pastor who has just completed a construction project. Wayne Lenderman of Church in the Orchard will pass along the wisdom he gained building a new auditorium.

How to Have Easier, More Effective Worship Rehearsals* —Jason Daniels (501)

Ugh, the rehearsal grind! Week after week we prepare to lead worship on Sunday. How can we get a better return on that investment of time and energy? Jason Daniels, Worship Pastor of The Assembly at Warner Robins, will help you take a better approach to rehearsals that will improve your productivity and recapture time for training, prayer, spiritual formation, building relationships and more.

Audio Excellence for Smaller Churches* —Kent Morris and Jeff Barnett (Administrative Complex)

It's a common belief that exceptional audio production requires large-scale systems and megachurch budgets. However, with the right techniques, you can achieve outstanding results on any scale. In this session, Kent Morris and Jeff Barnett of Sweetwater will equip you with practical methods that you can implement immediately to markedly improve your audio quality on any budget.

ADULT/GENERAL

Starting or Reinventing Your Senior Adults Ministry* —David Riner (CECE 4)

Ministry to senior adults is changing, which provides a great opportunity to revamp the way you approach this important ministry. David Riner, Lead Pastor of Maranatha Family Church and Georgia District's Senior Adult Ministries Director, has proven ideas to help.

Aligning Men with Their God-Given Purpose —Rob Boyd (105)

Men are quietly yearning to discover their purpose. They want more for their lives than a 9 to 5 job. They are struggling with big questions; looking for meaning and significance in their lives. Rob Boyd, Lead Pastor of Dallas Assembly of God, will show you how to lead men in getting aligned with their divine purpose.

Women Who Lead: Building Confidence and Embracing Authenticity — Jennifer Creswell (Student Center Auditorium)

This transformative workshop, led by sought-after speaker Jennifer Creswell, is designed for women who aspire to lead with confidence and authenticity. Jennifer will help you find your voice, deal with imposter syndrome, let go of insecurities about being a female leader, and learn to trust God with outcomes.

Compassion Fatigue: Preventing Burnout —Andrew Velez (802)

Have you experienced the emotional toll that ministry takes as you care for and encourage people who experience especially difficult times? What you are feeling is compassion fatigue. In ministry, we are repeatedly exposed to deep and complicated problems people are facing which can make it hard to feel compassion for the people we are helping. Andrew Velez, a licensed counselor, will help you avoid burnout and stay engaged with the hurting.

Bouncing Back After a Bad Ministry Experience —Jason Branson (502)

When the church causes hurt, we can question our calling and carry bitterness that works against the gospel. Jason Branson of Abundant Life Church in Locust Grove wants you to know you can bounce back. In fact, you must bounce back for the sake of God's kingdom. His story will show you that the gospel is worth the effort to get better.

What I've Learned Starting a Young Adults Ministry —Josh Lopez (504)

Each generation is complex, and many church leaders are wondering how to better connect with young adults. Josh Lopez will share his journey starting a ministry to young adults at Evangel Community Church in Snellville and talk about how to engage young adults and bring out the best in them.

KIDS MINISTRY

Relational Kids Ministry —Jeremy Williams (308)

Kids ministry is not just about relationships with your kids. Relationships with parents and guardians are equally important, if not more important; not to mention relationships with leaders and volunteers. Jeremy Williams, Kids Pastor of Dallas Assembly of God, will help you develop better relationships with EVERYONE in your kids ministry.

Small Churches Matter —Tiffani Sosebee (307)

Kids ministry can be challenging in a small church, especially when you're short on volunteers and kids. Tiffany Sosebee of Hidden Treasures in Kingsland, will discuss why kids ministry matters, even with just a few, and she will explore practical ways to deliver high-quality ministry regardless of church size or available resources.

Volunteers That Stick —Kami Heilman (310)

Every kids ministry needs more volunteers. It's one thing to recruit volunteers, but keeping those volunteers for the long haul is vital. Kami Heilman, Kids Pastor of Trinity Church in Sharpsburg, will explore principles and ideas that will help you engage a reliable and committed kids ministry team.

Sunday Experiences that Capture Kids' Hearts — Russell Smith (309)

Russell Smith, Georgia District KidMin Director, wants to help you make the most of your Sunday experience for kids and families by providing life-changing ministry that is fun, engaging, and creates opportunities to connect.

Developing a Vision for Your Youth Ministry —Max Samples (510)

Vision isn't just for "Big Church". Students want to be part of something bigger than themselves. Come learn how to move your ministry from a "social club" to a mission-driven force that aligns with the heart of your church and the heart of God.

The Rhythms of Effective Youth Ministry —Johnny Mendoza (512)

What do rhythms of youth ministry look like? From camps to conferences, from events to obligations, let's take a close look at the youth ministry rhythms that help ensure everything we do for our students, parents, and youth ministry are efficient and effective.

High-Impact Youth Events —Joel Trice (513)

Events are great student magnets. They can flood your night with new students, but what then? It's not just about one great night, it's about connection and creating a pipeline for students to your youth group and their families to your church. Join Joel Trice, Student Pastor at Christ Chapel Community Church in Zebulon, to learn how you can foster connection and build pipelines to build God's Kingdom.

Difference-Making Generosity in Youth Ministry —Andrew Tedder (514)

Generosity and sacrificial giving are essential to the life of ANY Christ-follower. Andrew Tedder, Next Gen Pastor at Tabernacle Church in Decatur, unpacks how partnering with your students, church and community can help increase the impact your youth ministry can make on this world through Speed the Light.

LEAD PASTORS TRACK

The Effective Transfer of Leadership—Glen Wolf (807/Old Choir Room)

Lead pastoral succession presents one of the most complex and challenging transitions church leaders will ever face. Dr. Glen Wolf, Lead Pastor of Griffin First Assembly, and author of “Switchpoint: The Effective Transfer of Church Leadership”, will help answer the most pressing questions about passing the baton.

BREAKOUT 3

11:00-11:50AM

Getting the Most Out of Your Short-Term Missions Trip — Thom Davis (CECE 4)

If you're going on a short-term trip—whether to your city or to the other side of the world—it is important to consider how you go. In this breakout, longtime missionary Thom Davis will share what makes a missions trip great for everyone involved.

BUSINESS AND ADMINISTRATION

Connecting with Givers — Mark Northcutt (503)

In many churches, a major percentage of giving comes from a small percentage of donors. So, while you encourage generosity from everyone, it is important to engage major and mid-level donors. Mark Northcutt, Director of Donor Services at Trinity Christian School, can help.

Next Steps in Exploring Your Call to Ministry — Jack Moon (805)

Is God calling you? If you want to explore vocational ministry but aren't sure where to start, this breakout is for you. Jack Moon, Georgia District Secretary-Treasurer, will explain why ministry credentials are important, the different levels of credentials and where to begin.

If You Confuse, You Lose — Ben Alfaro (806)

Do your guests, disciples, volunteers and leaders know what's next? Systems and processes give direction and clarity to the journey that's taking place in your church or ministry. They simply outline a series of strategic steps that your church uses to help move people from where they are to where God wants them to be.

WORSHIP, MEDIA AND CREATIVE

Balancing Creativity and Sensitivity to the Spirit in Worship — Leslie Jones (306)

Do you have to sacrifice creativity and excellence to be truly led by the Spirit? Leslie Jones, Worship Pastor of Redemption Church in Rome, will show you how to put together a worship experience that engages people, exalts Jesus, and makes space for the Spirit to move.

Church Production Tips for Small Congregations — Tyler Harris (501)

How do you improve your church's production without a big budget or a paid tech team? Tyler Harris, Lead Pastor of Awaken Church in Cartersville, loves to help small churches move forward in their use of media in their worship services. He will help you make significant improvements with small steps.

From the Site to the Seat: The Essential Role of Websites in Modern Ministry — Gabriel Mayes (Administrative Complex)

Your church's website is the frontline for your entire ministry. It's always accessible, it's how you get discovered and it's where first impressions are formed. Kyle Semple, Executive Pastor of Nations Church in Athens, will share with you their journey to increase small group participation and engagement.

Conquering Conflict: 5 Strategies to Reach Resolution — Andrew Velez (802)

Many people prefer to avoid conflict, hoping that it will just go away. But often, time only causes the wounds to get deeper, further damaging relationships. When disagreements and misunderstandings occur in a ministry, they can threaten the unity of a church. Andrew Velez, a licensed counselor and former pastor, will help you acknowledge and address the elephant in the room and heal the conflict.

Social Media and Event Promotion in Women's Ministry — Danielle Valimont (Student Center Auditorium)

Most women of all ages are on social media these days. Whether they prefer Instagram, Facebook, Tik Tok, or any number of other options, social media is a great tool to connect with women and promote your events. Danielle Valimont will help you learn the best ways to leverage social media in your women's ministry.

How to Lead Your Men's Ministry with Consistency — Tracy Jantz (105)

Men are more hesitant to commit than women— they have busy seasons that cause them to be absent for significant periods, and they often feel inadequate spiritually. As a result, one of the greatest keys to success in men's ministry is consistency. Tracy Jantz, Men's Ministry Director at The Assembly at Warner Robins, will talk about how to lead men with consistency.

KIDS MINISTRY

Reaching Today's Kids — Steve and Amy Bilsland (308)
